YDA Shortlist announced

At last, the moment you've been waiting for since this time last year has arrived:

The Young Director Award Shortlist is announced. You can view all the shortlisted work here: Europe & Non Europe

The next round of judging will take place in Cannes with the winners announced at our 15th anniversary show at Palais Stephanie's JW Marriott theatre on Thursday June 20th at 5pm.

This year the YDA is introducing an audience vote – so be there to vote for your favourite piece of work – and please do join us for the cocktail party afterwards at the Long Beach. Simply sign in at the YDA FB Event.
